1. One copy of the enclosure is returned herewith, with recommended alterations made in pencil. Comments regarding these alterations are as follows:

a. The Admiral's memorandum should not acknowledge categorically that the JIC deals with matters of intelligence coordination. The suggested change would convey the desired thought, without making such an acknowledgement.

b. All coordination of intelligence activities of Government agencies is of proper concern to the Director of Central Intelligence. Therefore, the phrase "other than the War and Navy Departments and the Joint Chiefs of Staff" should be deleted from paragraph (b) on the second page.

Enclosure:
as noted in par. 1.
